We, Universal Security Services (USSG) Group ('USSG ' and/or 'the company') aim to provide equal opportunities in employment, and our recruitment and selection procedures reflect that. We correctly train our HR staff or other such members of staff who have recruitment and selection responsibilities, to ensure that they avoid unlawful discrimination, both conscious and the unconscious varieties.

Our policy is to hire, promote, and advance employees solely based on merit. All decisions related to hiring, recruitment, promotion, or advancement will be made on this basis.

From time to time, all job descriptions, if utilised, shall be reviewed, and revised to make sure that they comply with our company's policies, practices, and procedures.

When we place advertisements for job vacancies, we will take these issues into account, and they will be non-discriminatory in nature.

We are committed to providing fair treatment to each job applicant and considering them only based on their ability to carry out the essential functions of the job. All job interview questions must be of a non-discriminatory nature, and only concern job requirements.

Recruitment and Screening – Security Guarding

1. Purpose and Introduction

- 1.1 This procedure defines how USSG recruits and screens all staff. Successful completion of security screening is one criterion upon which the decision to grant confirmed employment beyond the period of conditional employment is based.
- 1.2 The company will not employ persons whose history indicates that they would be unlikely to resist the opportunities for illicit personal gain, or the possibilities of being compromised, or the opportunities for creating any other improper breach of security, which such employment might offer.

2. Scope

- 2.1 This procedure covers all personnel employed at USSG who are engaged in security and personal data handling.

3. References

- 3.1 All procedures are written to Standards, Codes of Practice and Schedules as listed within AS11 Standards Adherence Document

4. Definitions

4.1 Screening Period

To be not less than 5 years immediately prior to the date of the application for relevant employment or transfer to relevant employment, or back to the date of ceasing full-time secondary education if this date is more recent. In addition, a consumer information check will be undertaken.

4.2 Conditional Employment

The initial period of employment for a new employee during which security screening is required is twelve weeks conditional employment for a five-year screening period.

4.3 Ancillary Staff

Persons involved in ancillary activities such as administration, personnel, building maintenance and cleaning.

When completing the JAF, the applicant is requested to bring original documents to support ALL screening requirements as detailed within the JAF.

All Security Guard applicants MUST hold a current and valid SIA Licence that covers them for the sectors they are applying to work in.

Where applicants hold a valid and current SIA Licence the original should be seen and verified against the public register of licence holders. The document details should be cross-checked against other information provided by the applicant. A copy of the public register search result should be retained on file.

The applicant must provide evidence of the following to confirm their identity and address:

These are either a:-

- Valid Passport
Or
 - Birth Certificate
& Valid Photo ID
(Driving Licence, or Governing Body's Pass)
- to confirm their Identity, and

Either 1 example of an addressed document dated within 3 mths of hire from a :-

- Utility bill
- Rent Book
- Military Service Certificate
- Deed Poll Certificate
- Official Correspondence

Where applicable, original documentation must be checked by a UV light to ensure authenticity.

The applicant must be informed of this and told that anything that appears to be a forgery would be reported to the relevant authority. All copies of the original documentation taken must be signed and dated, confirming authenticity by USSG management

It must be shown on the Vetting Progress Checklist that this information was verified, by whom and when.

As part of the applicant's recruitment; screening checks will be conducted regarding the applicant's education and career history.

(for ACS purposes only)

- When frontline licensable employees are recruited a skills assessment must be conducted at the interview stage and/or during the recruitment process to identify any immediate training needs they may have
- When frontline licensable employees are recruited with a pre-existing licence linked qualification a test must be conducted at the interview stage to assess their level of competence in the licence linked training
- Testing of competence and skills assessment may take place through: -
- Completion of the company's SIA Linked Skills Assessment form, or
- Targeted questioning, such as scenario posing, for example completing an incident report

HR Dept

Should it be decided after interviewing an applicant that they will not be offered employment, the applicant will be informed of this decision by letter.

It should also be noted that this is also subject to satisfactory screening.

HR Dept

Should the applicant be deemed suitable for employment, any job offer may also be reviewed subject to the satisfactory completion of the medical questionnaire (inc in JAF). Once this offer is confirmed applicants will thereafter be provided with a Contract of Employment, Job Description and Employee Handbook.

It should also be noted that this is all subject to satisfactory screening.

HR Dept

USSG screening is dependent upon those having knowledge of the person being screened, supplying information and references.

Every effort must be made to encourage persons / firms to assist in supplying information/references in respect of their previous employee when requested to do so, unless there are good and substantial reasons for not supplying such information and references.

HR Dept

Screening shall consider the following information as required:-

- Date of leaving full-time secondary education; in the case of applicants who state that they ceased full-time secondary education less than five years prior to the application for employment; the written record should confirm the date of leaving. For individuals who left at the end of the school year the period up to 1st November should be considered as part of the school career. For individuals leaving at other times of year the period of grace should be limited to two months
- Periods of employment; obtained from previous employers, although reference to a current employer shall not be made without the applicant's prior permission.
- Periods of registered unemployment; obtained from the DWP or other Government agencies. Where a Government Department states that records are not available, the period for which the record is not available shall be treated as a gap.
- Periods of self-employment; obtained from the Inland Revenue, Customs and Excise (VAT), Bankers, Accountant, Solicitor, Trade or Client references, etc., as appropriate. Evidence shall also be obtained confirming that the applicant's business was properly

Right to Work Checks

All Right to Work Checks must be carried out for employees who have applied for employment with the information provided by their completed Job Application Form

As an employer you have a responsibility to prevent illegal migrants working in the UK.

The documents that establish a person's entitlement to work can be found at Appendix A.

To comply with legislation, you MUST follow the procedure set out in Appendix A.

You must check and satisfy yourself that all documents are original, genuine, have not been tampered with and relate to the person applying for employment.

HR Dept

Conditional Employment

Where oral confirmation has been obtained showing continuous career history then authorisation can be given for conditional employment of the candidate, conditional on the written confirmation of the screening and vetting process (Document 'HR-100 Vetting Progress Checklist') including if applicable, the results of the said checks.

An offer of conditional employment should not be made unless: -

- The level of risk in the intended employment has been considered and is acceptable
- Preliminary checks have been completed satisfactorily
- Limited security screening has been completed satisfactorily

Full Security Screening (Written Confirmation)

HR Dept

The written confirmation of the security screening process (Document 'HR-100 Vetting Progress Checklist') should be completed no later than twelve weeks after conditional employment has commenced. All actions in the screening process shall be recorded.

Conditional employment should in no case continue for a period exceeding twelve weeks.

Shall continually monitor the screening process for each conditional employee throughout the twelve-week conditional employment period.

Appendix A

1. Right to Work Checks

As an employer you have a responsibility to prevent illegal migrants working in the UK. Failure to do so may render you liable to a fine if the person you employ is subject to Immigration Control, over 16 and not entitled to undertake the work in question.

However, under the law you will have an excuse against such liability if you check and copy certain ORIGINAL documents BEFORE someone starts working for you.

If you KNOWINGLY employ a person who is not permitted to work, you will not have an excuse and could face a fine and/or imprisonment.

In addition to the Proof of Address requirement, as detailed within the company's Job Application Form (JAF). The JAF also advises of the requirement to provide Proof of Identification, not limited to both documented and personal photograph evidence. Such documents that establish a person's entitlement to work are split into two lists (detailed below, scroll down) from which :-

List A – which allow the person to work for you for an indefinite period and ONLY need checking once.

Or

List B – which allow a person to work for a limited time only and MUST be subject to repeat checks at least once every twelve months.

To comply with legislation the following procedure MUST be followed:-

The prospective employee (or existing employee if carrying out Repeat Checks) must provide to you, either:-

- One of the single document or document combinations specified from List A

or

- One of the single document or document combinations specified from List B

2. You Should Only Accept Original Documents

You MUST take all reasonable steps to check that documents are valid, relate to the applicant and allow them to do the work in question.

You should check that photographs are consistent with the appearance of the applicant (i.e. you must see them in person), that the dates of birth are consistent, that expiry dates of any limited leave to enter or remain within the UK have not passed.

Check that any visas, stamps etc., allow the applicant to do the work on offer, satisfy yourself that the documents are genuine and have not been tampered with and if two documents are given with different names ask for further documents to explain this, i.e. Marriage certificate, divorce decree etc.

You must make a photocopy or scan of the relevant pages of each document. In the case of a passport, the front cover and any page that provides details of nationality, photograph, date of birth, signature, date of expiry or biometric details, and:-

Any page containing UK Government endorsements indicating that the holder has an entitlement to be in the UK and is entitled to undertake the work on offer.

Other documents should be copied in their entirety.

You should keep a record of every document copied and the copies should be stored securely whilst the person works for you and for up to six years thereafter.

Acceptable documents:-

3. List A - Single Document from the following:

- A valid passport showing that the holder is a British Citizen or stating that the holder is a 'Citizen of the UK and Colonies' AND 'has the right of abode in the UK.'
- A valid passport or identity card showing the holder is a resident of an EEC country or Switzerland.

5. List B - (to be checked at least once every twelve months) - Single Document from the following:

- A valid passport or travel document endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is allowed to do the work in question, provided it does not require the issue of a work permit.
- A Biometric Immigration Document issued by the Border Agency which indicates that the person named in it can stay in the UK and is allowed to do the work in the question.

6. List B – Or a Document Combination of the following:

- A work permit or other approval to take employment issued by the Home Office or Border Agency.
- Along with actual permission from the Border Agency for the person to take the employment in question. You must also ensure that the applicant has been given leave to enter and remain in the UK.

or

- A letter issued by the Home Office or Border Agency to the holder or the employer confirming the same.

7. List B – Or a Document Combination of the following:

- Certificate of Application issued by the Home Office or Border Agency to or for a family member of a national of an EEC country / Switzerland stating that the holder is permitted to take employment which is less than 6 months old.

or

- A residence card or document issued by the Home Office or Border Agency to a family member of a national of an EEC country or Switzerland.

or

- An Application Registration Card issued by the Home Office or Border Agency stating that the holder is permitted to take employment.

8. List B – Or a Document Combination of the following:

- A document issued by a previous employer or Government agency which contains the National Insurance number and name of the holder.

And any one of the following documents:-

- An Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office or Border Agency to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the person named in it can stay in the UK and is allowed to do the type of work in question.

or

- A letter issued by the Home Office or Border Agency to the holder or the employer which indicates that the person named in it can stay in the UK and is allowed to do the work in question.

If, when rechecking documents, an employee provides a document or documents from List A, no further checks are necessary for the duration of that employment
